Artificial Intelligence (AI) Risk Review Request

Please complete all questions below. Artificial Intelligence (AI) is transforming the way we work, innovate, and solve problems. To ensure responsible and strategic AI adoption, the use of AI must be evaluated to determine the potential legal, regulatory, and compliance risks to New York Life from the use of AI. Prior to implementing AI functionality, the AI solution (including models, features, and applications), must be evaluated to determine the potential operational, financial, reputational, legal, and regulatory risks to New York Life from the use of AI. Upon submission, the AI Review Team (AIRT) will review your request and advise of further clarification needed, if any.

Should you need assistance completing the questionnaire, please contact your business unit's AI & Data Partner for support: https://nylintranet.newyorklife.com/page/119599
